

Vacancy Announcement

Project Administrator for Ranchers Stewardship Alliance

Overview and background

This is a new position assigned to further the growth, goals and objectives of the Ranchers Stewardship Alliance (RSA). RSA is a nonprofit organization led by conservation minded volunteers many of whom are ranchers. We focus on the importance of ranch families and their contributions to their communities, to the ecosystems they manage, and to feeding the world. We are looking for a motivated individual who understands private landowners and landowner stewardship issues, as well as the complex relationship they have with public lands and our conservation partners. The successful candidate must be comfortable communicating effectively in a number of venues with a variety of audiences and special interest groups.

How to Apply – Submit applications to ranchstewards@gmail.com

1. Provide a cover letter and resume detailing your education and experience and how they help you meet the desired knowledge, experience, and skills sought.
2. Degree transcript(s) if applicable – copies are acceptable.
3. The names and contact information of 3 professional references who can address your experience and knowledge.

Application review will begin March 2, 2020

Position will remain open until a suitable candidate is found.

Questions about the position can be submitted to ranchstewards@gmail.com or by calling Leo Barthelmess at (406)654-4667 or Conni French at (406)658-2644

General information about Malta and Phillips County

North-Central Montana is characterized by gently rolling grass prairies adjoining the rough, broken landscape near the Missouri and Milk Rivers flowing west to east. Phillips County includes approximately 1.6 million acres of public lands intermingled with 1.7 million acres of private and state lands. Land use is principally farming and ranching with mineral activity (natural gas) near Saco and Whitewater. Population for the county is approximately 5,100 – less than 1 person per square mile. Malta is the county seat. The nearest Walmart in Havre is 88 miles and the nearest International airport is Great Falls at 203 miles. Amtrak provides daily rail passenger service to Malta.
